Walthamforesthistorvandheritage.net has details of the activities of other history groups in the borough

You should note that the Society holds in computer format and on paper details of members' names, addresses, phone numbers and email addresses, together with notes on the aspects of the Society's activities in which each member has expressed an interest, and on payment of annual subscriptions and other amounts requested. This information is made available to office-holders and other members who carry out tasks for the Society. This information will not be disclosed outside the Society. Members of the Society are regarded as having given their consent to this information policy because it is essential to the Society's operation .

The Society began its life in February 2005. Its long-term aims are to research and promote interest in and knowledge of the history of the area of the former Borough of Leyton and its surrounding region.

You do not have to be an academic historian to play a part in the Society; there are many different ways of exploring local history. Our history Society will be instructive, sociable and, most of all, fun.

The activities of the Society will reflect the diversity of our community. Membership will be open to all who support the aims and objectives of the Society, regardless of race / ethnicity, gender, disability, sexual orientation, age or religious faith.

The Society has an annual programme of lectures, visits etc Members receive a regular newsletter.
